Dear Mr. Startz:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (attached) received in the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) FOIA office on March 24, 2025, in which your request states, "Please allow my request to be more specific. Considering the "INSPECTOR GENERAL US DEPT OF DEFENCE SEMI ANNUAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS" Please specifically which events reported to congress are connected to any investigations connected to the events associated with this investigation; including all examples of personnel misconduct of enlisted and senior ranking civilian employees and any audits found especially in appendix "B" for the reports to congress APRIL 1, 2022 - MARCH 31-2025 ( this includes multiple editions). Fell free to provide a highlighted copy of each publication identifying each event associated with this investigation example of publication attached."

Your request was assigned control number 25-134 for administrative purposes. Please refer to this control number in any further correspondence regarding your request.

In accordance with the attachment provided with your request titled: "Inspector General, U.S. Department of Defense, SEMIANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS APRIL 1, 2023, through SEPTEMBER 30, 2023," DCMA does not have cognizance over the report. The report falls under the purview of DoD Office of the Inspector General (OIG); therefore, we are providing a no records response to your request.

No fees were assessed for this request.

For records pertaining to "Inspector General, U.S. Department of Defense, SEMIANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS APRIL 1, 2023, through SEPTEMBER 30, 2023," please fell free to submit your request to the DoD OIG FOIA Office by email at foiarequests@dodig.mil, or phone (866) 993-7005.

If you have any concerns about your request that have not been addressed by the DCMA FOIA Officer, you may contact me, the DCMA FOIA Public Liaison, for assistance. The DCMA FOIA Public Liaison is available to assist in reducing delays, increasing transparency; increasing understanding of the status of requests and assists with resolving disputes. To ask a question, express a concern, file a complaint or resolve a dispute, contact the DCMA FOIA Public Liaison either by email (dcma.gregg-adams.hq.mbx.dcma-foia@mail.mil) or by phone at 804-609-4535.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to FOIA requesters. If you wish to discuss the possibility of mediation on a FOIA matter, you may contact OGIS directly at the address, email or phone numbers listed on its Web site.

(<https://www.archives.gov/ogis>)

If none of these methods of dispute resolution meets your needs, you have the right to appeal this determination under DoD Directive 5400.7-R. Appeals must be made within 90 calendar days of the date of this letter and include the control number listed above along with the reason for reconsideration of the response. Both your letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Your appeal should be forwarded to:
